Sharing at ICHE 2014

To accommodate groups of individuals within school divisions or communities who can only attend the conference for one or half a day, we are happy to offer shared registrations. These can be purchased by organizations, and will admit one person at a time. Everything included with regular registration will be available to the name tag bearer.

People's Choice K-12 Art Contest

Learning to love, loving to learn.

Guidelines

- Contest is open to all current K-12 Hutterite students (enrolled in 2013-14 school year)
- One piece of artwork per student.
- Artwork should be no more than 2 years old.
- The artwork should have a Hutterite connection (faith, life, family, work, etc.)

Awards

The following prizes will be awarded in two categories: K-6 and 7-12.

- 1st Prize: $100
- 2nd Prize: $50
- 3rd Prize: $25

Registration Details

- The name of the artist, title of piece, name of the school/community, and grade level should be on the back of your piece.
- Artwork should be mounted on foam board if it is not properly mounted already.
- Make arrangements with someone attending the conference to deliver and return the artwork
- Pieces will be displayed with name, title, grade, and an entry number.
- Pieces will be judged by a large audience of teachers. Voters will be strongly encouraged to take the grade level of the entry into consideration.
- Adult artists are also encouraged to submit artwork for display in the conference gallery, but such pieces will not be part of this contest.

Deadline

- The registration deadline is August 13th, 2014. (conference start date)
